WEDNESDAY, MAY 27, 1868.

Local Items.

WALKS.—We notice that the miserable two plank walk on the north side, upper portion, of Fairfield street, has been superseded by a new walk four feet wide. This completes the repairing and building of walks on that street, which is now well supplied.

THE MONTREAL DAILY NEWS.—We have received a copy of the Daily News, published in Montreal, by Mr. John Lovell, a well conducted and handsome sheet, and shall be pleased to exchange with it.

THE CONCERT.—We again call the attention of the readers of the TRANSCRIPT to the concert of the St. Albans Brigade Band, which comes off to-morrow evening at Academy Hall. The programme is excellent, and lovers of vocal and instrumental music should not fail to attend. The price of tickets is 35 cents; reserved seats, 50 cents. Tickets for sale at Brown & McGowan's Hardware store, Main street, and at the door. Doors open at 7 o'clock; concert will commence at 8 o'clock.

A TEMPERANCE PAPER.—G. W. Fogg, of Springfield, Vt., has commenced the publication at that place of a neat little monthly paper to be devoted to the interests of the temperance cause, or more properly that branch of the cause of temperance which attends strictly to alcoholic fluids. The paper will be in some sense the official organ of the "party." Price 50 cts. per year, in advance.

EXTENDING.—That street in our town which, if it were not for the park would be a portion of Lake Street, but which now is known by the hierarchical name of Bishop street, and which crosses High street near the residence of Mr. Street, will soon demand the attention of the "city fathers" with a view to its extension to Smith street. Four or five lots have been purchased on its line, one of which has been newly fenced in, and another of which has been adorned with a neat house by Mr. Truitt, who will add a wing and veranda, and who, with other lot owners there will desire a street and walk, naturally.

On and after Tuesday of next week the Vermont Central Railroad will run Refrigerator cars, provided with ice between Rouses Point and Boston, on Tuesday of each week during warm weather. These cars have been newly fitted up with Schooley's late improved patent Refrigerator, and it is believed that with a man constantly in attendance, they will keep butter, cheese, and other perishable property, perfectly cool.

The Fenians.

The straws that tell which way the wind blows begin to move. Although no new "hardware" advertisements have been inserted in the St. Albans papers by new comers, "hardware" items begin to circulate in the papers in a suggestive way, and those who know a "thing or two" drop mysterious hints which lead us to expect that there will be a Fenian campaign this summer that will not end in the peaceable region of Pigeon Hill. But aside from all the little "hints" of paragraphs and rumors, we think our information warrants the assertion that we shall see, before the President is impeached, at least, if not before the 4th of July, a sight something like that witnessed here two years ago, when there were troops, Generals, and even a Secretary of War in our midst. We publish elsewhere an article upon Fenian matters which will interest many of our readers.

The following from a Boston paper we give for what it may be worth:

A programme for the Fenian invasion of Canada, in July next, supplies Gen. O'Neill with 30,000 troops, attacks Montreal with 15,000 men, marches 5000 men from Buffalo against Toronto and 3000 from Detroit to the same point, and sends a body of 10,000 men to their support.

The following despatches were sent from this place to the Daily News, Montreal, and published in that paper on the 22d inst:

We have this morning received private and authentic information from our special correspondent at St. Albans to the effect that there is intention to make a Fenian raid from that vicinity, about the first of June, of a more formidable character than those heretofore attempted. Preparations are being made in the various New England States. St. Albans was selected as a base of operations at a meeting on Tuesday night.

Our readers will be kept thoroughly posted on (sic) any reliable information which may be obtained. Early next week we will endeavor to give full particulars of the strength, organization and financial condition of the Fenian force on the frontier. The volunteer force in Canada is warned to see to the efficiency of its arms, and the supply of ammunition on hand is to be promptly reported to headquarters.

LATER.—We have received further intelligence from our St. Albans correspondent, to the effect that the Fenians are also making preparations at Malone for the contemplated raid on the Canadian frontier.

An Agricultural Department.

Notwithstanding we have devoted as much space to Agricultural matters as our State papers generally, yet we believe that a Department in the TRANSCRIPT especially devoted to the subject of Agriculture in all its branches would be gladly welcomed by a large number of our present patrons, and induce many others who are not subscribers to become such. We have, therefore, to announce that we have secured the services of O. S. Bliss, Esq., of Georgia, who will hereafter have the editorial management of the Department of Agriculture. Mr. Bliss is thoroughly conversant with Agricultural matters, is a ready writer, and we doubt not will make his Department entertaining and instructive. In tomorrow's issue, Mr. Bliss will inform the readers of the TRANSCRIPT what he proposes to do.

WHAT THE PAPERS SAY OF US.

(From the World's Standard.)

The Vermont Daily Transcript, the publication of which was commenced in St. Albans by Wilbur P. Davis, Esq., on the 13th, is very neat in its mechanical appearance, of a size to compare favorably with the other State dailies, and editorially vigorous and able. In its news department it is a credit to its managers. We welcome it with pleasure and wish for it a prosperous career.

(From the Portland Courier.)

The Vermont Daily Transcript is the name of a new daily newspaper just started in the thriving village of St. Albans. It is edited by Messrs. Wilbur P. Davis and A. Barnes, and thus far seems to be a live paper. We wish it success, and ask of it an exchange.

(From the Columbian, St. Johnsbury.)

We have received the second number of the Daily Transcript, printed by Wilbur P. Davis, St. Albans, with Mr. Davis and Almont Barnes, editors. It is an exceedingly handsome and neatly printed paper, of good size, and filled with interesting State and general news. St. Albans is the second place in the State that supports two daily papers. Burlington and St. Albans having two each, and Rutland and Montpelier one each.

(From the Trevelman, Montpelier.)

We are in receipt of the Vermont Daily Transcript, published at St. Albans, by Wilbur P. Davis, who is assisted editorially by Mr. A. Barnes, late of the St. Albans Messenger. The Transcript makes a fine typographical appearance, and seems determined to win success by deserving it. We shall be pleased to welcome it daily in our sanctum.

We publish the above additional notices of our efforts to supply this village and vicinity with a "live daily," and take the occasion to remark that the good appearance and the life of our paper are not due to any spasmodic effort, but are destined to continue "just as though nothing had happened."

State Items.

THE FREE PRESS says the house and buildings lately owned and occupied by Judge Bennett on the corner of St. Paul and Bank streets, have been purchased by Michael McGinn for $725. We understand they are to be moved before the 15th of June, when the ground will be graded to properly carry out the plan for the extension of the yard of the Church.

THE JUNE TERM of the Addison County Court commences next Tuesday.

D. C. Linsley of Burlington, has on his fine place a young elk, sent him from the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

RUTLAND has voted twenty thousand dollars to construct a new reservoir, to be raised by a loan.

THE MIDDLEBURY REGISTER says in Salisbury and vicinity, many sheep are dying off from some unknown cause. One farmer has lost over a hundred. The mortality generally prevails among the poorer sheep, but in several instances it has extended to the best flocks.

THE TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL FAIR of the Windham County Agricultural Society is to be held at Newfane on Sept. 30th, and Oct. 1st, 1868. The officers of the Society for the current year are: President, L. F. Ward, Westminster; Vice-Presidents, O. S. Howard, Townshend, Holland, Plimpton, Newfane; Sec. and Treas., W. A. Steadman, Newfane.

TYSON FURNACE in Plymouth, has been sold, it is understood, to some Connecticut gentlemen, who belongs to the firm of Collins & Co., (though we believe that but one took the deed). They are said to be enterprising men, and will immediately put the furnace into operation. One of the gentlemen is a brother of Colt, the pistol man. They are going to manufacture steel, from the steel ore bed, on the farm formerly owned by Caleb Weaver.

VERMONTERS received the following patents for the week ending May 19th: Harvey Webster of Cambridge, for improvement in Whiffletree.

Harvey Webster of Cambridge, for improved thill coupling.

Edmund Brown of Burlington, for improved vegetable masher.

Harvey D. Harden of Hartford, for improvement in hubs to carriage wheels.

Edward C. Rye of Burlington, for improvement in watch, clock and lock keys. Antedated May 9, 1868.

Eward Smith of St. Albans and Haskell G. Smith of Goshen, Conn., for improvement to harvesters. Antedated May 9, 1868.

DENIAL.—Senator Trumbull authorizes the most emphatic denial to the subjoined injurious statements which have been set afloat concerning him:

"1. That he has lately been in communication with Andrew Johnson. He has had no communication with Johnson, directly or indirectly, since last November.

"2. That he has a Democratic son, and that his son has made bets on the acquittal of Johnson.

"3. That he has ever been in any scheme for forming a new political party.

"4. That he has any earthly inducements or motive to vote for acquittal other than his own sense of justice."

NEW YORK, May 27.

A special cable despatch dated London, yesterday, states that news to the 1st of May has been received from Tientsin, China, by way of Kiackta, that forty thousand insurgents were besieging Tien-tsin. They have surrounded
